

Mike Dierberg
Chairman of First Bank

Continuing its fourth generation of family ownership, Mike Dierberg serves as the Chairman of First Bank. Mike's passion is helping family and privately-held businesses thrive, grow, and succeed for many generations.

Prior to rejoining First Bank in 2010, Mike was an attorney at the United States Department of Justice and before that served as General Counsel of First Bank. Mike is also a second-generation owner of Star Lane and Dierberg Vineyards, located in Santa Barbara, California.

Mike serves as Chair of the Today and Tomorrow Educational Foundation, an organization that provides more than 5,000 scholarships to children in need in the St. Louis region each year. He also serves on the board of KIPP St. Louis, a public charter school network with six schools in St. Louis city, and co-chairs the Education Committee of the Regional Business Council.
